Bismarck, lying just below the south wall of the arsenal, three miles below the center of the city, aught fire about noon to day, and in a short time was totally destroyed. The origin of the fire is not nown, but the flames were first seen issuing from the forward part of the cabin. The presumption is that she caught fire from sparks from a locomotive n the St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern railand, which runs within a few yards of where the oat lay. The Bismarck was owned by the Bismarck ransposition company. Captain John Spane, he mmander, owned a controlling interest in her. She was valued at thirty-five thousand dollars, and isured for fitteen thousand eight hundred dollars is Incinnati and Pittsburg offices. About twenty men were at work painting and repairing the boat when he fire broke out, but all escaped safely.

Levee Paragraphs. Business fair.

Weather clear and cool at dark last night.

Local packets departed with fair trips yesterday evening.

The Grand Tower departed on time last evening for St Louis, with 85 bales of cotton.

Beceipts by river yesterday were 532 bales cotton, 73 bags seed cotton and 3646 sacks cotton seed.

The H. C. Yeager passed down last evening for New Oriesns. She added here 400 bales cotton and 54 tons of leake. The H. C. Yeager passed down last evening for New Oriesna. She added here 400 bales cotton and 50 tons oil cake.

The City of Helena passed down for Vicksburg and the bends resterday morning, after adding 30 tons of way freight.

The wind whistled around the corners and through the crevices resterday, seemingly inquiring about the condition of an overcoat.

The Geo. W. Cheek, Captain Mark B. Cheek, is the packet to-day for Friars Point, leaving at the usual hour. J. G. Roland is her clerk.

Captain W. C. Harry, agent of the Mill Harry White river nail line, in this city, commanded the S. P. Hubbard in the Louisville trade in 1856.

The Mark Twain, Captain J. D. Randall, arrived last evening from St. Francis river with a fair trip, and leaves again this evening, at five o'clock, for that stream.

and leaves again this evening, at five o clock, for that stream.

Captain R. W. Lightburne received telegraphic advices from Helena yesterday, from Captain E. C. Postai, stating that the Hard Cash will arrive early this morning, and resurn to White river, at the usual hour, this evening.

We hear if authoritatively stated that Captains Washington and Carter of the Lee wharfboat, have been commissioned a cents of the Memphis and Cincinnati packet company, formerly so ably represented by Captain B. W. Lightburne.

Under the proper heading above will be found the particulars abcut the departures of packets to-day, which include the George W. Cheek, for Friars Point; St. Geneteve, for St. Louis; Mark Twain, St. Francis river; Hard Cash, White river; and Gold Dust, for New Orleans, Louisville Commercial, Thursday: "The big sternwheel boat building at Belle Verron for W. J. Kountz will not be launched until the middle of next month. The hull of the new side-wheel steamer for the Mo-nongahela Slackwater packet company will be launched at the close of next month."

Frank Beck, Adam Walland, and Val. Eutrican are the quilli artists on the Thompson Dean—all-well known and popular in river circles from Mem-phis to New Orleans. Ed Brown, the steward, is also recognized as at the head of his profession, feeds high, and is the favorite with the traveling public. Of Dan Bachlus, the medical director—well he is too well known to require any comment from us.

he is too well known to require any comment from us.

Dr. Thomas J. Griffiths, surgeon, in charge of the United States marine hospital at Louisville, reports the following as the condition of the hospital under his charge during the month of October, 1877: Number of patients remaining the last day or September, 50; admitted during the month of October, 42; treated, 92; discharged, 31; remaining on the last day of October, 61; out-door patients treated during the month of October, 28. No deaths reported.

Vicksburg Herald, Thursday: "Yesterday an alarming rumor prevailed that the Deita had bursted her boiler down in Davis's bend, and that all her crew were killed except Captain Crawford and the chambermaid. The report originated from the fact that she had burnt her boiler, and sent up here for a boiler-maker to go down and repair it. After diligent inquiry, we feel authorized in saying that this is all there is in it."

The great Thompson Dean, which is on her way from New Oricans to this port with a big trip, will arrive at noon to-morrow. The numerous friends of the Dean, and of Captain James H. Pepper, will welcome them back into this trade, where their popularity in former days was second to no boat nor commander. Captains Washington and Carter, of the welcome them back into this trade, where their popularity in former days was second to no boat nor commander. Captains Washington and Carter, of the Lee wharfboat, have been commissioned her agents, and have already heavy engagements for her return trip. The Dean leaves for New Orleans and the bends next Tuesday evening, at five o'clock, and will hereafter leave Memphis every alternate Tuesday during the business season.

bottom prices, to those who wish to build residences, and have homes of their own. I mean exactly what I say. Ten new houses are already built and occupied, and several more will be built soon. THE STREET-CAR authorities promise to extend their road to these valuable grounds just so soon as the population becomes sufficient to justify the running of the cars, which cannot be very far off. Also, I will sell or lease, for a term of years, a spiendid Market Garden, with two hundred hotbed sash, at bottom figures.
Those who wish to purchase must "strike while the iron is hot," or they will lose the best bargain ever offered. Trille Prairiett. Apply to B. R. THOMAS
